in just that 1 category, on just the first page,

The First Secret:

how to create profitable books,
easily and quickly,

and first, WHAT to write.

The second Secret . . .

How to publish books profitably without all the hassles,
so you get better reviews and lots more sales.

3 important ways to get lots more sales
by presenting your book better . . .

Part A:

how to use your book cover to sell more books.

How to get your book
published professionally
without needing to know how to do all the technical things yourself.

Proof-reading, editing, typesetting
and Kindle conversion,
where do you get these done? . . .

A one-stop shop for getting all this done is UpWork.com

When choosing an outsourcer, do your research . . .
check the number of hours worked and the reviews.

Get the publishing done professionally
so you get better reviews and sell more books.

You can even get other people to pay for it all.

Publishing secrets

part C:

The vital subject of pricing.

Learn how to succeed with pricing by doing the OPPOSITE of what many authors do . . .

Many authors
lower their price
to try to compete.

But Richard charges relatively high prices,
and many of his books sell very well.

Perceived value is very important,
. . . a higher price suggests higher value.

Look at the prices of similar books to yours,
on the same platform.

Consider how competitive your niche is,
and what value people will get from your book.

Make sure your price is practical for the cost of producing your book (if there is a fixed cost).

The 3rd secret.

This is the biggest mistake nearly all unsuccessful authors make,
and why most authors get only a few sales.

The main part of the whole process which gets SALES,
is promoting your book(s), which most authors ignore or do ineffectively.

Here's one great way to do it,
which is free and can be hugely effective,
from Richard, the book publisher who's made multiple millions doing exactly this . . .

YouTube can build trust and respect in your brand
and increase conversion rates significantly,
including on Amazon.

Give free content, such as a video about
each chapter of your book.

Keep your videos short and to the point.
Link to your Amazon (or other) page in the description under the video.

YouTube book promotion is free, easy,
and you don't need to even own a camera
or be seen yourself, if you don't want to.

YouTube promotions can work for any type of book,
there is a simple way to almost guarantee that
your content will “go viral” there,
and it gets great results
for both non-fiction and fiction.

So far, this webinar has given you
practical methods to:

- find out what to write,
- write a profitable book quickly and easily,
- publish it easily, quickly and professionally
for more sales,
- and vital secrets of promoting your book
for real sales volume.
